

'We don't worry like before' went missing amidst the violence perpetrated against the Rohingya people in Myanmar. She and her son sought safety in the Bazar in Bangladesh. Estimated to be home for around 1 million people, by no stretch of the imagination is life in the camp easy, but Rabiya has been partner (Dushtha Shasthya Kendra) learning new skills and finding some hope in the bleakest of circumstances.

work in the camp after getting

