

URCC GROUP ACTION AWARD

NOMINATION FORM

The Lundie Award recognises the often unnoticed work of children and young people within their churches and communities as they play their part in the mission of God. The Lundie Memorial fund and other allocated funding from the URCC have created a finite number of 100 monthly awards of £100. This award is designed to spotlight and celebrate individuals using their God-given skills, time and talents to good effect within their church, their community, their synod or even nationally.

However, what happens if there is not only one, nor just two, nor three children or young people that are boldly playing their part in the mission of God? What would happen if the work of a entire group requires recognition?

The Children and Youth Work Committee (CYWC) have created a certificate to recognise the extraordinary contribution of a Group to the mission of God in their local place. local community projects such as a dementia café, groups providing live music for services, groups leading worship, groups organising and running intergenerational projects in churches, young person training older people in the use of technology. We are particularly keen to hear about any groups who have had an idea themselves and gone on to bring it to fruit.
